IN AND ABOUT LANCASTER.

Special Edition.
We are working on our special edition to be issued next week. The vast amount of work and worry connected with issuing a paper like we propose to send out has made it necessary to employ extra help and put in extra hours, but the present indications are favorable to it being the best ever sent out from a Lancaster office. The business men are availing themselves of the opportunity of getting their wares before the people and are bringing in their ads. A few refuse to get in the band wagon, preferring the tail end of the procession of progress. As it will be impossible to see everybody, these wanting space had better speak at once. Fifteen hundred extra copies will be printed and sent out. Judge M. D. Hughes has been employed to help, and if the editor misgives you, see him.

No County Court.
We are requested to announce there will be no session of the County Court on December 21st, it being a holiday. The banks also request us to say their doors will be closed on this day and also on Monday, January 21.

Committee Appointed.
The County Court has appointed a committee to place a valuation on the Stanford pike. The court selected Messrs. J. N. Denny and El. Price, and the company Mr. Tommy Robinson. The committee is still at work and will report in a few days.

If any of our readers have a picture of the Lancaster Baptist church, they will please make the fact known by holding up their right hand. We also want a picture of the Graded School and will be under lasting obligations to anyone furnishing it. All please speak at once.

The following marriage licenses were issued this week by county clerk Dancan: La Rue Duerson, Madison, to Miss Jennie May Arnold, of Garrard; E. L. Prewitt, Madison, to Miss Annie Prather, of Garrard; Geo. Garner, Garrard, to Miss Mollie Wilson, of Garrard.

Preacher Engaged.
Rev. J. C. Massey, of Orlando, Florida, has accepted the call to take charge as pastor of the local Baptist church. He will move his family here and services will be held every Sunday instead of twice a month, as has been the previous custom. Rev. Massey will begin his work first of the year.

Ready for Business.
Dolph Rice has moved into the handsome new stable just completed at Danville, and is thoroughly equipped for feeding, hitching and furnishing first-class livery. Swell Landaus for weddings, a specialty. Ask for the Rice Stable when you go to Danville and you will be given the best and your patronage appreciated.

Circuit Court Adjourns.
The circuit court adjourned Wednesday. The last few days were given to disposing of a number of civil suits, none of which are of especial interest to the public. M. L. Johnston, who sued W. A. Askins for damages because the latter's mill whistle frightened her horse, was given one cent and costs. A like judgment was given E. Warren against Geo. Marshbanks for failure to carry out a contract about some tobacco. The indictment against Tol Gill for receiving stolen property fled away. Curt McFarland, the negro mute, was indicted last term for detaining a woman, and this was fled away.

The jury this term cost the State $934. The grand jury returned twenty-two indictments, two of which were for perjury and one for cutting. The rest were for misdemeanors.

You can't beat our prices on stoves.

Wanted Badly.
We are exceedingly anxious to get a picture of the old court house, which stood in the center of the Square. If any one will bring us one before Saturday at noon we will give them a year's subscription to The Record and be under lasting obligations.

Wm. H. Anderson Dead.
Just as we go to press news is received of the death of Mr. Wm. H. Anderson, at his home near Preachersville. No funeral arrangements have been made at this hour. His son, John L. Anderson, arrived from Washington yesterday.

Good for Bob.
The Danville Advocate says the Mercer County Court has retained Robert Harding, of Boyle, as counsel to assist County Attorney C. A. Hardin in the suit of Mr. Isaac Pearson for $9,331 against Mercer county for his commissions, &c., in holding and delivering the Louisville Southern Railroad Bonds.

It is with pleasure that we place in our columns the advertisement of the Bryant & Stratton Business College of Louisville, Ky. We know this to be a thorough and reliable institution and every young man or lady who desires a business, shorthand or Telegraph course will do well to address the College for its elegant twenty-fourth annual catalogue.

Mr. G. M. Patterson, manager of the Lancaster Electric Light Co., has been negotiating with the city of Danville in regard to putting in a plant there. The Lancaster lights are by far the brightest and best burning in any town in this section, so say the people who have seen many. Mr. Patterson understands the business and our neighbor city would be wise in giving his offers preference.

Finely Equipped.
The K. C. has recently placed in service one hundred of the improved and extra large stock cases. They are much longer and better equipped than the old ones, and fill a long felt want of the shippers. Their train leaves here about 3:30 in the afternoon and lands stock at the Cincinnati yards early the next morning. The shippers are greatly pleased with the present facilities. The hauling has been extra heavy this fall.

Arnold-Duerson.
Miss Jennie Mae Arnold, the handsome daughter of Mr. Clay Arnold, and Mr. L. L. Duerson were married at the home of the bride Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Clark, of the Methodist church. The attendants were Miss Minnie Arnold and Mr. Hugh Mason. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for their home near Richmond. The Record extends congratulations.

Competitive Examination.
On Saturday, Dec. 17, at the office of the County Superintendent, an examination will be held for teachers who desire an appointment to the Normal Department at State College. This is a competitive examination and is therefore open to all teachers. Four appointments are to be made, and those teachers obtaining the highest average in Arithmetic, U. S. History, English Grammar and Geography will be entitled to the appointment.

Elisa J. Lusk, Co. Supt.

Meeting Closed.
This meeting at the Methodist church closed Tuesday night, Rev. Morrison leaving the night previous. The cold weather must have affected the enthusiasm, as not much was awakened. Several united with the church, however, and some good was accomplished. The trouble is nearly everybody belongs to some church and seem to think this fact alone insures a hard pair of wings. We believe Sam Jones was right when he said nine-tenths should be turned out and a new deal had all around.

Death of Mrs. Poor.
Mrs. John Will Poor, whose serious illness had been mentioned in previous issues of The Record, died at the home of her husband, Col. John Will Poor, in Lower Garrard, last Thursday morning at an early hour. Mrs. Poor had been ill for a long time, but bore her suffering without ever a murmur. She was a devout christian, and a woman who was ever anxious and ready to help her friends. She will be greatly missed in the community in which she resided. The remains were interred in the Lancaster Cemetery Friday morning. Many Lancaster friends of the family extend great sympathy for the bereaved husband and family.

Dickerson-Sutton.
Miss Lillie Sutton and Mr. Ebb Dickerson were married Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride. The ceremony was said by Rev. Kuykendall, of the Fork church. The wedding was a very quiet affair owing to recent bereavement in the family. Miss Sutton is the bright, attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. Fred

Sutton. Mr. Dickerson is a popular business man and is engaged in a dry goods store in Buckeye. After the ceremony an elegant supper was given to the immediate members of the families of the bride and groom by Mrs. Jno. W. Brown. We extend congratulations to the happy pair and wish them a smooth voyage through life.

Richmond Goes Dry.
A telegram from Richmond says the local option election held there Saturday in the three magisterial districts of Richmond, Union and Elliston, resulted in a victory for the dries by a majority of 121. The Whisky people, it is said, will contest the election, claiming that as Richmond as a fourth class city is independent of the rest of the county. They have already engaged able counsel, and say they will fight to the bitter end. Money and whisky furnished by Louisville and Cincinnati brewers and distillers were freely used in the election, notwithstanding the Christian women and the ministers of the city stayed at the pools all day in the cold, buttonholing and pleading with the voters.

Suit Brought.
Sunday's Courier-Journal prints the following: "J. M. Higginbotham, administrator of the estate of M. W. Johnson, brought suit yesterday against the New York Life Insurance Company for $50,000. The action is based on policy on the life of Mr. Johnson, issued in July 1893. It is alleged that after receiving the policy Mr. Johnson returned it to the company to have it divided into two or more policies aggregating the same amount. The policy was, it is claimed, 'wrongfully detained by the company, which has since refused to deliver it up.' The administrator states that he wrote to the defendant company on January 20, 1897, announcing Mr. Johnson's death, whereupon the defendant, it is alleged, answered, denying that Mr. Johnson was insured in it. M. W. Johnson was a prominent citizen of Garrard county, who had a very large amount of insurance in various companies at the time of his death. The administrator is here represented by Mr. R. P. Jacobs, of Danville; Wm. McC Johnson and Harris & Marshall, of this city.

That Throbbing Headache.
Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Tausan's of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 15 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by R. E. McRoberts, Druggist. 1m Christmas Celebration.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Batson Saturday afternoon at the usual hour. All are requested to be present, as arrangements for the Christmas celebration will be perfected at that time.

Suit to Recover Fees.
Sait has been brought by the Commonwealth against nearly every circuit clerk in the state to recover certain fees which the court of appeals recently decided against them. The outcome of these suits will be watched with much interest. W. B. Mason, ex-clerk in this county, is included in the lot. The amount against him is $935. His bondsmen were Benjamin and E. L. Mason.

A Fine Stable.
Dolph Rice has completed his handsome stable at Danville and it is the best equipped we ever saw. A Record man was shown through the building Tuesday and was surprised to find so expensive and handsome an outfit. A long string of fresh horses, pretty rubber-tire buggies, handsome landaus and many other accommodations are to be had, and Dolph is quite reasonable in his charges. Herbert Price looks after the books and "B" Farris sees that the finishing touches are put onto every rig sent out. We bespeak for Mr. Rice a liberal share of patronage.

Drumming Settling In.
Judging from the big victories won by the temperance people in various towns recently, the saloon is fast losing its grip. Somerset, Monticello, Richmond, and, in fact, every other town voting on this question, went dry by large majorities. Ten or fifteen years ago a fellow could get on an occasional jag and keep up his work, but in recent days drinking and business will come no nearer mixing than will oil and water. We do not know whether it is the quality or not, but we do know "from pretty good authority" that a fellow can't keep his tank full of whiskey and do anything else at the same time in these days.

Lawyer Jas. A. Anderson Dead.
James A. Anderson, formerly of this city, died at his boarding house in Louisville last Thursday night, after a brief illness. Mr. Anderson was a citizen of Lancaster for many years and engaged in the practice of law in the partnership with Capt. Wm. Herndon. He enjoyed a fine practice and was considered as able an attorney as any at the local bar. He moved to Louisville about ten years ago and engaged in the tobacco business, giving this up shortly after to accept a position as U. S. gauger. The deceased was an honest man in his dealings and what he said could be relied upon. In the practice of law he never resorted to any under-handed tricks or sly methods, but made a fair, clean fight for the interest of his clients. He was in his 67th year and a brother of William, Thomas and John Anderson, all well known in this county. His wife died several years ago and is buried at Shelbyville. Mr. Anderson had many friends in Lancaster, who greatly regret his death. The remains arrived on the train Saturday and were interred in the Lancaster Cemetery.

C. D. POWELL.

A "Backwoods Merchant" wishes to advertise again. It has been sometime since my last appearance, but I was too busy to write an ad. By the way, I would like to whisper in our editor's ear about advertising bringing business, but he's a good fellow, so we'll just let him go. In beginning, I wish to say that before this spell is over, I think the blue grass will all be snowed under. However, here is what I have and what I am selling at: Sugar, 17 lbs $1; good prunes 7 1/2 lbs, best prunes, 8 1/2 lbs; raisins, 10c; citron, 12c; 4 cakes soap, 5c; rolled oats, 5c; candy 5c; flour, 50c per sack, $1.55 per 100 lbs; can peaches, 10c; Leverings Bulk coffee, 12 1/2 lbs try it, she's a goodun; tomatoes 5c per can; corn 2 cans 15c; peas, 2 cans 5c; split peas, for soup, 5c per lb; cheese 15c; oysters 2 lbs 15c; 12,000 matches 5c; mixed nuts 15c; salmon 10c; best salmon 2 for 25c; good butter 10c; coal oil 9c; best coal oil 12c; Salt, well, I'm out, but I ain't for long; good, fresh country sausage, 7 1/2 lbs; furniture, shingles, &c., in season. I can't tell it all, just come and I can show you better than I can tell you. But I must stop, as the editor will get all the profit. Of course those prices are cash. Yours in hope,

FRIDAY December 16 1898.

OUR trouble with Spain now seems to be nearing an end. The treaty between the United States and Spain was signed at Paris Saturday night. The fact was officially announced to the President by Mr. Dwyer, who also carried a full statement of the contents of the eight principal articles of the treaty. These articles relate to the relinquishment of sovereignty over Cuba, the cession of Guam, Porto Rico and the Philippines, with detailed stipulations as to the evacuation of the Philippines, and the release of Filipino and Cuban prisoners by Spain in exchange for Spaniards held by Aguinaldo. So far, so good. But we very much fear that Uncle Sam's troubles are now beginning. The government of the "job lot" he now has on hand will be the knottiest problem the old fellow has ever had to deal with. If the whole mess could be sold, at a fair profit, Uncle Sam could then resume business at the same old stand, have a lot of worry off his hands and a nice "wad" in his pocket beside.

A CORRESPONDENT of the New York Herald and Courier-Journal, who has made a careful tour of the islands, is forced to the conclusion that it is impossible to recognize a native republic in the Philippines. The rebels are of the lowest type and are opposed to any government. The better classes are disgusted and want the insurgents driven from the towns, where they live by pillage. They believe that American rule can be gradually but firmly introduced, and that an army of 25,000 men, with modern artillery, could force the disbanding of the rebel army.

A CITY JUDGE at Hopkinsville has posted "inebriate lists" in all saloons in that city, and the name of every fellow who has been fined more than once for drunkenness, appears thereon. The judge has certainly never wrestled with king alcohol, or he would know that whenever a fellow wants a drink and has the price, the fluid will be forthcoming despite all the work done to prevent it. He's on a cold trip with his list. There is only one way in this world to stop a man from drinking, and that is, convince him of the error of his way give him a shot at him and then keep him at work.

The people of Louisville have given a rousing and appropriate welcome to the Legion this week. This action shows the appreciation the people have for their soldier boys. This is all well, and we sincerely hope the Louisville daily papers will now find time to publish something beside the movements and matters of these troops. For the last two weeks they have printed scarcely anything else, and the rural readers have had a bountiful sufficiency, thank you.

THE $20 steer case of Noland vs. Noland, in Madison, was decided Wednesday, in favor of the plaintiff. The costs together with lawyer's fees aggregated over $800. It was the fourth trial of the case. This is a fair sample of the way some people hold on when they get to "lawing." As long as they can stand off the lawyers and clerk for fees, the case generally stays in court.

It looks very much like the Jim Crow car has come to stay. The Appellate Court has overruled a petition for rehearing in the case of the Ohio Valley railroad vs. Lander. This is the case in which a decision was handed down some weeks ago, upholding the separate coach law. If the "colored niggers" are given the same accommodations as white folks, we fail to see why they should kick. They ought to be glad to be separated from some classes of white trash.

Spain's Greatest Need.
 Mr. R. P. Ojeda, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of the head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest Blood and Nerve Remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by R. E. McRoberts, Druggist.

A Narrow Escape.
 Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and I thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Trial bottles free at R. E. McRoberts' Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded. 1m

Mr. Hardin Norris, clerk in the drug store of R. Shoemaker, Perry, Illinois, says: "A man came into our store the other day and said, 'I want a bottle of that stuff that saves children's lives.' I read in the News about it. The children may get sick when we can not get the doctor quick enough. It's the medicine you sell for croup." He alluded to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and bought a bottle before he left the store. For sale by R. E. McRoberts, Druggist. 1m

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—There is no difference in the price, the public will buy only the better, so the while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by R. E. McRoberts, Druggist.

In Love and Memory of Mrs. J. W. Poor, who departed this life December 7th at half past two.

In our home we stood silently, helplessly by and with aching hearts watched the pure spirit of one of God's Angels on earth pass into the silent beyond, that bourne from whence no traveler ever returns. Yet ere her pure spirit winged its way to heaven she was given the power which is given to few to give assurance to her friends that while her body lingered in our sight yet her soul was so far in the heavenly realms that she was in spirit with her loved and lost while her body was with her family on earth. With her sons and mother she was gathering the flowers and fruit she so well had earned by her life of labor for others. Her husband has lost God's best gift to man, a good wife; we, her children, our best and truest friend, a pure kind loving mother.

No selfish love would call her back to a life of untold pain and suffering though our hearts ache for a sight of her dear kind face, and a touch of her ministering hand. Sleep well, dear mother's form, for your soul is safe with its maker and all awaits its resurrection morning. Already you have heard on the other shore the welcome paud "well done thou good and faithful servant, possess the Kingdom prepared for you." How happy her end.

In a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens we know she awaits us. We know the vase is broken but the scent of her roses cling to it still and the blessing of having had so sainted a mother is ours and time cannot change this memory.

So loves and hopes must wither and decay. The light and joy and song of home depart. And missing be the forms we oft have pressed. No life but knows its chill November day. Nor in this world was ever there a heart. That did not hold in grief its empty nest.

Editor RECORD:

I have noticed in your valuable paper the trouble now at hand between Judge M. D. Hughes and "X. Y. Z." This may be overlooked by some of our citizens and allowed to drift along until all our standing army will be overworked in trying to stop the trouble.

Most of the people in my neck of the woods are Christians and peaceable folks, and have gone through with large grapple, 45ct wheat, tollgate trouble, Spanish war and many other hardships, but if we are threatened with this new disturbance what it may come to is the question now most exciting our people. In his letter Judge Hughes threatens more than the people can stand—he boldly threatens to open up on "X. Y. Z." with every lawyer in Lancaster. Just think of that! That would be a terrible calamity, for we have all noticed that whenever ONE lawyer starts at anyone that is the last of that person. The shock caused by this terrible disturbance between the two gentlemen has so affected the people of this community that I feel it my duty to try in some way to bring about a settlement and let the nation get quiet once more. War is truly horrible, but in all its bloody work, it will not be a patching to the weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth caused by this trouble if the law-abiding, peace-loving citizens don't take a hand and see that these men are made to lay down their arms and cease hostilities.

Words in Memory.

I visited Lancaster last August and as an old friend, visited Mrs. Greenleaf, and found her quite feeble in body, but in mind and memory I could see but little change from former years. I have known her for the last 50 years, and for twenty-five years lived a next door neighbor to her and know that she was ready at all times to wait on the sick and suffering. My object in this communication was simply to endorse the remarks of Elder Geo. Gowen as to her christian character. Peace to her ashes. N. SANDIFER.

Sassafras Christians.

The Madisonville Hustler talks out in meetin' as follows: "We do not say it in a way of faultfinding, neither as a slur upon any church or on Christianity, but there is no doubt that we have in the world too many Sassafras Christians. It may be that there are those who do not know what kind of a Christian a Sassafras Christian is. We will explain: Every farmer who uses wood well knows that when a lot of sassafras pieces of wood are put together and fire set to them that the wood will blaze, pop and make such a noise that it would seem that the world was on fire. But separate the pieces and in less than five minutes the fire has gone out, the crackling has ceased and the whole thing is as cool as if no blaze had ever existed. Many professed Christians are the same way. When they are together in a protracted effort they are warm, they get hot, they make a noise, and to the looker on one would suppose that there was enough religion on hand to fire the world; but as soon as the members separate, like the sassafras chunk, they cease to burn or blaze. Such people are Sassafras Christians.

Catarrh Leads to Consumption.

A Forerunner of the Most Fatal Disease.

Through its offensive features are sometimes almost unbearable, few people are aware of the danger of which Catarrh is the forerunner. Catarrh invariably leads to Consumption. Growing worse and worse each winter, those who rely upon the usual treatment of sprays, washes and inhaling mixtures find that it is impossible to check the disease with these local applications which only reach the surface. The offensive discharge increases all the while, causing a feeling of personal defilement, and gets deeper and deeper until it is only a question of a short time until the lungs are affected.

The importance of the proper treatment can therefore be readily appreciated. But no good whatever can be expected from local applications, as such treatment never did cure Catarrh, and never will.

"I had such a severe case of Catarrh that I lost my hearing in one ear, and part of the bone in my nose sloughed off. I was constantly treated with sprays and washes, but each winter the disease seemed to have a firm hold on me. I had finally been declared incurable when I decided to try S. S. S. It seemed to get right at the seat of the disease, and cured me permanently, for I have had no touch of Catarrh for seven years."

"Mrs. JOSEPHINE POLHILL, 'Due West, S. C.'"

Those who have had the first touch of Catarrh will save themselves suffering by taking the right remedy at the outset. Others who have for years suffered only disappointment in local treatment will find it wise to waste no further time on sprays, washes, inhaling mixtures, etc., which are only temporary and can not save them from Consumption. Catarrh is a deep seated blood disease. S. S. S. is the only remedy which can reach the very bottom of the disease and cure it permanently.

FARM AND STOCK NOTES.

The Agricultural Department estimates the crops of corn and oats for 1893 as worth $83,000,000 more than the same crops for 1897.

Although Col. J. P. Cunn sold his great thoroughbred horse Lisack, and a number of brood mares at the Lexington sale, he did not by any means sell out, as he has yet about 20 first-class yearlings and 10 brood mares.—Democrat.

On account of low prices for feed there is more money in butter at 20 cents now than there was at 25c a few years ago, but when we undertake to warm up creek water with the corn the profit becomes an evanescent dream.

When you ask for De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve don't accept a counterfeit or imitation. There are more cases of piles being cured by this, than all others combined. At Stormes' Drug Store.

The Rural New Yorker has been looking up the law about trespassing fowls and it finds that we have no more right to let a fowl stray off the premises than we would have to let a hog or a mule go foraging in our neighbor's fields.

Lexington horsemen who attended the big sale in New York the past two weeks have returned home and all are in high spirits over the result. They all say that it looks very much like old times to see horses bringing such good prices, and are confident that good times have come to stay.—Stock Farm.

It is estimated by competent judges that Clark county, Ky., farmers have marketed, or will market, this season, 7,500 fat, fat cattle at prices that will bring $450,000 to $500,000 into the county. Many of these cattle are exported to England. Bourbon is the only county in the state that exceeds Clark in this respect this year, having marketed, it is said, about 10,000 head for over $650,000.

Constipation prevents the body from ridding itself of waste matter. De Witt's Little Early Risers will remove the trouble and cure Sick Headache, Biliousness, Inactive Liver and clear the complexion. Small, sugar coated, don't gripe or cause nausea. At Stormes' Drug Store.

Court of Appeals of Kentucky in a decision regarding boundary lines between lands, declared that a fence built as dividing line by parties owning adjoining lands, and so mentioned by them for forty years or more, must be regarded in law as establishing such a line, even if it does not agree with the calls of the deeds.

The following is the general rule for measuring corn. Two cubic feet of good sound dry corn in the ear will make a bushel of shelled corn. To get the quantity of shelled corn in a box of corn in the ear, measure the length,

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by coughing, is requested to call at any drug store and get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar which always gives relief.

The Burgin Messenger says John Hargrave bought in Cincinnati last week 135 head of common cattle selected by him at the yards for which he paid $2.50 a hundred. Mr. Hargrave does this every year. He says they pay better than heavy stock, that three of them will eat no more than one heavy bullock, while the gain of the former up to July will be not less than 1,200 pounds. The gain of the latter to October will not exceed 400 pounds. He says he can get on an average 4 cts. a pound for the light stock and 4 3/4 cts. for the heavy stock, making him on the above calculation $48 for the former and $19 for the latter.

A poultry breeder says a bushel of corn will produce six pounds of pork worth 25 cents, while this bushel would keep a hen a year. She would lay at least twelve dozen eggs, which, averaging 10c a dozen, would equal $1.20, and she would rear a brood of chickens worth twice as much more, making a total of nearly $3. Experiments made at the Utah agricultural experiment station, seems to prove the correctness of the statement made above. Another writer says: "Forty dozen eggs will bring more than a load of hay, which requires a great deal of labor to produce and a good sized patch of ground to grow, besides a lot of sweat. Study the egg question."

IMPORTANT DECISION.
Conclusion is Not Proof of Blacklisting by a Railroad Company, Says the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 14.—The court of appeals Tuesday decided that a railroad employee who had been blacklisted and in a suit against the road for damages alleged he had thus been deprived of the right to work at his only profession for other roads, could not recover damages, because this allegation was merely a conclusion of the pleader and not shown to be a fact.

The plaintiff in the case is John Hundley, of Marion county, who had been discharged by the L. & N. railroad for neglect of duty. Judge Payton delivered the opinion, and it is the first time the question has ever been decided in Kentucky. The inference can be drawn from the opinion that the employee can recover damages if he proves that the blacklist prevents him from securing employment.

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES.
Two of Them Interested in Money Tied Up in a Kentucky Court.—The Estate of Jerry O'Callaghan.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Dec. 14.—The Citizens' Savings bank paid into court $1,800 attached by the city of Owensboro for taxes on the estate of Jerry O'Callaghan, on deposit in the Citizens' for the years 1891-92 inclusive. O'Callaghan claimed that the money was not his, having been bequeathed to his brother, Rev. Eugene O'Callaghan. Rev. Father O'Callaghan died, leaving a will bequeathing all the property to the Nazareth and Loretto societies. Jerry O'Callaghan lived for years here in penury and the strictest self-denial, but lending money freely on good security. He is now living at Loretto. The suit is to determine as to whether the money belonged to Jerry O'Callaghan for the years named.

Heavy Verdict Set Aside.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 14.—The court of appeals Monday at Frankfort reversed the decision of the lower court in the case of Kaufman, Strauss & Co., of this city, against the Louisville Gas Co. It will be remembered that in 1892 a boiler in the plant of the Louisville Gas Co., in the rear of Kaufman, Strauss & Co., exploded and as a result the latter company's building was destroyed. Suit for $300,000 was entered against the Louisville Gas Co. and a verdict for that amount recovered. Judge Hazelrigg Tuesday reversed the decision.

The Electropoise does not, however, confine its cures along any particular line. It cures by removing the cause causing the system to absorb Oxygen, purifying the blood, and building up the system.

Dear Sirs: The goitre has entirely disappeared from Mrs. Wilson's neck, and she is the proudest and most grateful woman in the world. The Electropoise has accomplished what the physicians and medicines could not. More than seven years ago she was told that she could never be cured. The Electropoise contradicted the opinion of learned doctors, has removed the swelling, and she is entirely well.

I have under my observation another case of goitre that is being rapidly cured. It is my only doctor, and I use it in my family for all ailments.
